

What does a black sign mean?

Name at least 3 reasons why signs use mostly graphics, instead of words:

Draw a picture of the pennant shaped sign, what it means, and what side of the road you find it on:

Traffic Control Planners use signs to tell you:

What _____

What to _____

Where _____

Explain the color of the signs:

Green Sign:

Brown Sign:

Blue Sign:

Route Signs are _____ or _____ and they can be in multiple different colors.

Interstate Numbers:

North & South are _____ numbers

East & West are _____ numbers

Freeways with _____ numbers are telling you it is in offshoot from the main freeway.

Streets & Avenues:

North & South are:

East & West are:

Explain the signs:

Pink Sign:

Orange Sign & What is special about it:

Draw a pentagon shaped sign and its meaning:

Where do you stop at a stop sign?

Yield Sign:

Draw a picture of a Cross Buck and what does it mean?

The Speed Limit Sign is a _____ sign that is a _____ shape.

Speed limits take effect as you _____.

The Speed Limit on Streets in cities and towns is _____ mph unless otherwise posted.

What does this mean?

The Basic Speed Law says you _____ than is safe or prudent for the existing conditions regardless of the speed limit.

Traffic Circle: Yield to those _____ and you always turn _____.

Draw a picture and explain the Arrows:

Right Red Arrow

Right Yellow Arrow

Right Green Arrow

Left Red Arrow

Solid Yellow Light

Left Flashing Yellow Arrow

Left Green Arrow

The Point of No Return means:

What do you think you might have to do at a stale green light?

When the electricity is out, treat the intersection like it is a _____.

You must listen to:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Draw a picture of a construction flagger and label what his/her arm signals mean:

After stopping and checking for traffic, you can turn left on a red light if you are entering a _____.

When can you drive across the crosswalk when a pedestrian is in the road in WA?

What is the difference between the white and the yellow lines in the middle of the road?

Double yellow lines that are 18" apart means no passing & _____

The solid white line on the right means:

White arrows painted on the road mean:

Give some examples of who gets to go:

Yield to the people on your _____.

The law says who must _____

It does not give absolute right of way.

